- Has presented at educational seminars for juniors (10 pts) _____
- An AKC breed judge (10 pts) _____

*Due to conflict of interest concerns, currently licensed AKC juniors judges are ineligible to serve as advisors

I have met the above requirements and further agree to the following:

- to use ASSA materials when advising
- to keep the tone positive and be objective when advising
- to concentrate on virtues rather than faults when discussing dogs
- to share my knowledge and experience in such a way that it inspires young people to learn more about the Sheltie
- to not use my status as an ASSA advisor for advertising or self-promotion in any way
- to conduct myself appropriately as a representative of ASSA

I understand that my continued inclusion as an advisor is a privilege, which, for cause, may be withdrawn, limited or modified by the Board of Directors of the ASSA. Cause shall include, but not be limited to, my failure to comply with the above written guidelines.

If a complaint about my conduct as an advisor is received by the ASSA, it shall be presented to the Juniors Committee. The Juniors Committee shall review the complaint and may request a written explanation from the advisor. The committee may also seek input from any witnesses or others. If after its review, the Committee deems that further action is appropriate, the Committee shall refer the matter to the Board of Directors of the ASSA or to a committee designated by the Board, for such disposition as it, in its discretion, shall deem appropriate. The decision of the Board or the Board designated committee, as the case may be, shall be final.
